

Notice of Privacy Practices

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES OF TRI STATE UROLOGIC SERVICES, P.S.C., INC. AND THE UROLOGY CENTER, LLC

As required by the Privacy Regulations created as a result of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA), and the Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health Act (HITECH Act), part of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 (ARRA).

This Notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

In this Notice of Privacy Practices (this "Notice"), the words you or your shall refer to you as our patient. The words we, us, or our, shall refer to Tri State Urologic Services, P.S.C., Inc. dba The Urology Group and The Urology Center, LLC. The letters "PHI" shall be an acronym meaning protected health information, which is defined in the applicable Privacy Regulations, and which generally means your individually identifiable health information.

A. OUR COMMITMENT TO YOUR PRIVACY

We are dedicated to maintaining the privacy of your individually identifiable health information or PHI. In conducting our business, we will create records regarding you and the treatment and services we provide to you. We are required by law to maintain the confidentiality of health information that identifies you. We also are required by law to provide you with this Notice of our legal duties and the privacy practices that we maintain concerning your PHI. By federal and state law, we must follow the terms of this Notice as it may be amended from time to time.

We realize that these laws are complicated, but we must provide you with the following important information:

- How we may use and disclose your PHI
- Your privacy rights in your PHI
- Our obligations concerning the use and disclosure of your PHI

The terms of this Notice apply to all records containing your PHI that are created or retained by us. We reserve the right to revise or amend this Notice. Any revision or amendment to this Notice will be effective for all of your records that we have created or maintained in the past, and for any of your records that we may create or maintain in the future. We will post a copy of our current Notice in our offices in a visible location at all times, and you may request a copy of our most current Notice at any time.

C. WE MAY USE AND DISCLOSE YOUR INDIVIDUALLY IDENTIFIABLE HEALTH INFORMATION (PHI) IN THE FOLLOWING WAYS

The following categories describe the different ways in which we may use and disclose your PHI.

- 1. Treatment. We may use your PHI to treat you. For example, we may ask you to have laboratory tests (such as blood or urine tests), and we may use the results to help us reach a diagnosis. We might use your PHI in order to write a prescription for you, or we might disclose your PHI to a pharmacy when we order a prescription for you. Many of the people who work for us including, but not limited to, our doctors and nurses – may use or disclose your PHI in order to treat you or to assist others in your treatment. Additionally, we may disclose your PHI to others who may assist in your care, such as your spouse, children or parents.
- 2. Payment. We may use and disclose your PHI in order to bill and collect payment for the services and items you may receive from us. For example, we may contact your health insurer to certify that you are eligible for benefits (and for what range of benefits), and we may provide your insurer with details regarding your treatment to determine if your insurer will cover, or pay for, your treatment. We also may use and disclose your PHI to obtain payment from third parties that may be responsible for such costs, such as family members. Also, we may use your PHI to bill you directly for services and items.
- 3. Health Care Operations. We may use and disclose your PHI to operate our business. As examples of the ways in which we may use and disclose your information for our operations, we may use your PHI to evaluate the quality of care you received from us, or to conduct cost-management and business activities for our business.
- 4. Appointment Reminder. We may use and disclose your PHI to contact you and remind you of an appointment. We may also leave you a message on an answering machine to remind you of an appointment.
- 5. Treatment Options. We may use and disclose your PHI to inform you of potential treatment options or alternatives.
- 6. Health-Related Benefits and Services. We may use and disclose your PHI to inform you of health-related benefits or services that may be of interest to you.
- 7. Affiliated Entities. Tri State Urologic Services, P.S.C., Inc. dba The Urology Group and The Urology Center, LLC are legally separate entities that are affiliated with each other because of common ownership. Each such affiliated entity may use and disclose your PHI to the other such affiliated entity.
- 8. Release of Information to Family/Friends. We may release your PHI to a friend or family member that is involved in your care, or who assists in taking care of you. For example, a parent or guardian may ask that a babysitter take their child to our office for treatment. In this example, the babysitter may have access to this child's medical information.
- 9. Disclosures Required By Law. We will use and disclose your PHI when we are required to do so by federal, state or local law.

D. USE AND DISCLOSURE OF YOUR PHI IN CERTAIN SPECIAL CIRCUMSTANCES

The following categories describe unique scenarios in which we may use or disclose your identifiable health information:

- 1. Public Health Risks. We may disclose your PHI to public health authorities that are authorized by law to collect information for the purpose of
 - Maintaining vital records, such as births and deaths
 - Reporting child abuse or neglect
 - Preventing or controlling disease, injury or disability
 - Notifying a person regarding potential exposure to a communicable disease
 - Notifying a person regarding a potential risk for spreading or contracting a disease or condition
 - Reporting reactions to drugs or problems with products or devices

- Notifying individuals if a product or device they may be using has been recalled
- Notifying appropriate government agency(ies) and authority(ies) regarding the potential abuse or neglect of an adult patient (including domestic violence); however, we will only disclose this information if the patient agrees or we are required or authorized by law to disclose this information
- Notifying your employer under limited circumstances related primarily to workplace injury or illness or medical surveillance.

2. Health Oversight Activities. We may disclose your PHI to a health oversight agency for activities authorized by law. Oversight activities can include, for example, investigations, inspections, audit, surveys, licensure and disciplinary actions; civil, administrative, and criminal procedures or actions; or other activities necessary for the government to monitor government programs, compliance with civil rights laws and the health care system in general.

3. Lawsuits and Similar Proceedings. We may use and disclose your PHI in response to a court or administrative order, if you are involved in a lawsuit or similar proceeding. We also may disclose your PHI in response to a discovery request, subpoena, or other lawful process by another party involved in the dispute, but only if we have made an effort to inform you of the request or to obtain an order protecting the information the party has requested.

4. Law Enforcement. We may release PHI if asked to do so by a law enforcement official:

- Regarding a crime, victim in certain situations, if we are unable to obtain the person's agreement
- Concerning a death we believe has resulted from criminal conduct
- Regarding criminal conduct at our offices
- In response to a warrant, summons, court order, subpoena or similar legal process
- To identify/locate a suspect, material witness, fugitive or missing person
- To an emergency, to report a crime (including the location or victim(s) of the crime, or the description, identify or location of the perpetrator)

5. Deceased Patients. We may release your PHI to organizations that handle organ, eye or tissue procurement or transplantation, including organ donation banks, as necessary to facilitate organ or tissue donation and transplantation if you are an organ donor.

6. Organ and Tissue/Donation. We may release your PHI to organizations that handle organ, eye or tissue procurement or transplantation if you are an organ donor.

7. Research. We may use and disclose your PHI for research purposes in certain limited circumstances. We will obtain your written authorization to use your PHI for research purposes except when: (a) our use or disclosure was approved by an Institutional Review Board or a Privacy Board; (b) we obtain the oral or written agreement of a researcher that (i) the information being sought is necessary for the research study; (ii) the use or disclosure of your PHI is being used only for research and (iii) the researcher will not remove any of your PHI from our premises; or (c) the PHI sought by the researcher only relates to decedents and the researcher agrees either orally or in writing that the use or disclosure is necessary for the research and, if we request it, to provide us with proof of death prior to access to the PHI of the decedents.

8. Serious Threats to Health or Safety. We may use and disclose your PHI when necessary to reduce or prevent a serious threat to your health and safety or the health and safety of another individual or the public. Under these circumstances, we will only make disclosures to a person or organization able to help prevent the threat.

9. Military. We may disclose your PHI if you are a member of U.S. or foreign military forces (including veterans) and if required by the appropriate authorities.

10. National Security. We may disclose your PHI to federal officials for intelligence and national security activities authorized by law. We also may disclose your PHI to federal officials in order to protect the President, other officials or foreign heads of state, or to conduct investigations.

11. Inmates. We may disclose your PHI to correctional institutions or law enforcement officials if you are an inmate or under the custody of a law enforcement official. Disclosure for these purposes would be necessary: (a) for the institution to provide health care services to you, (b) for the safety and security of the institution, or (c) to protect your health and safety or the health and safety of other individuals.

12. Workers' Compensation. We may release your PHI for workers' compensation and similar programs.

13. Sale of PHI. We are not permitted to sell your PHI unless you have authorized the disclosure.

14. Marketing. Except as provided in HIPAA and the HITECH Act, we are not permitted to use your PHI for marketing purposes unless you have authorized the communication.

E. YOUR RIGHTS REGARDING YOUR PHI

You have the following rights regarding the PHI that we maintain about you:

1. Confidential Communications. You have the right to request that we communicate with you about your health and related issues in a particular manner or a certain location. For instance, you may ask that we contact you at home, rather than work. In order to request a type of confidential communication, you must make a written request to Privacy Officer, 2000 Joseph E. Sanker, Blvd, Cincinnati, Ohio 45212 specifying the requested method of contact, or the location where you wish to be contacted. We will accommodate reasonable requests. You do not need to give a reason for your request.

2. Requesting Restrictions.

General Restrictions. You have the right to request a restriction in our use or disclosure of your PHI for treatment, payment or health care operations. Additionally, you have the right to request that we restrict our disclosure of your PHI to only certain individuals involved in your care or the payment for your care, such as family members and friends. We are not required to agree to your request; however, if we do agree, we are bound by our agreement except when otherwise required by law, in emergencies, or when the information is necessary to treat you.

Health Plan Restrictions. You have the right to request a restriction in our disclosure of your PHI to a health plan for payment or health care operations with respect to specific items and services for which you have paid out of pocket in full. Unless disclosure to such health plan is required by law, we will grant such request.

In order to request a restriction in our use or disclosure of your PHI, you must make your request in writing to Privacy Officer, 2000 Joseph E. Sanker Blvd, Cincinnati, Ohio 45212. Your request must describe in a clear and concise fashion:

- (a) the information you wish restricted;
- (b) whether you are requesting to limit our use, disclosure or both;
- (c) to whom you want the limits to apply; and
- (d) when applicable, that such request relates to a health plan and specific items and services for which you have paid out of pocket in full.

3. Inspection and Copies. You have the right to inspect and obtain a copy of the PHI that may be used to make decisions about you, including patient medical records and billing records, but not including psychotherapy notes. You must submit your request in writing to Privacy Officer, 2000 Joseph E. Sanker Blvd, Cincinnati, Ohio 45212 in order to inspect and/or obtain a copy of your PHI. We may charge a fee for the costs of copying, mailing, labor and supplies associated with your request. We may deny your request to inspect and/or copy in certain limited circumstances; however, you may request a review of our denial. Another licensed health care professional chosen by us will conduct reviews.

4. Amendment. You may ask us to amend your health information if you believe it is incorrect or incomplete, and you may request an amendment for as long as we keep the information. To request an amendment, your request must be made in writing and submitted to Privacy Officer, 2000 Joseph E. Sanker Blvd, Cincinnati Ohio 45212. You must provide us with a reason that supports your request for amendment. We will deny your request if you fail to submit your request (and the reason supporting your request) in writing. Also, we may deny your request if you ask us to amend information that is in our opinion: (a) accurate and complete; (b) not part of the PHI we keep; (c) not part of the PHI which you would be permitted to inspect and copy; or (d) not created by us, unless the individual or entity that created the information is not available to amend the information.

5. Accounting of Disclosures. All of our patients have the right to request an accounting of disclosures. An accounting of disclosures is a list of certain non-routine disclosures we have made of your PHI for purposes other than treatment, payment and health care operations. Use of your PHI as part of the routine patient care and payment is not required to be documented. For example, the doctor sharing information with the nurse, or the billing department using your information to file your insurance claim. In order to obtain an accounting of disclosures, you must submit your request in writing to Privacy Officer, 2000 Joseph E. Sanker Blvd, Cincinnati, Ohio 45212. All requests for an accounting of disclosures must state a time period, which may not be longer than six (6) years from the date of disclosure and may not include dates before April 14, 2003. The first list you request within a 12-month period is free of charge, but may charge you for additional lists within the same 12-month period. We will notify you of the costs involved with additional requests, and you may withdraw your request before you incur any costs.

6. Right to a Paper Copy of This Notice. You are entitled to receive a paper copy of this Notice. You may ask us to give you a copy of this Notice at any time. To obtain a paper copy of this Notice, contact Privacy Officer, 2000 Joseph E. Sanker Blvd, Cincinnati, Ohio 45212.

7. Right to File a Complaint. If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint with us or with the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services. To file a complaint with us, contact Privacy Officer, 2000 Joseph E. Sanker Blvd, Cincinnati, Ohio 45212. All complaints must be submitted in writing. You will not be penalized for filing a complaint.

8. Right to Provide an Authorization for Other Uses and Disclosures. We will obtain your written authorization for uses and disclosures that are not identified by this Notice or permitted by applicable law. Any authorization you provide to us regarding the use and disclosure of your PHI may be revoked at any time in writing. After you revoke your authorization, we will no longer use or disclose your PHI for the reasons described in the authorization. Please note, we are required to retain records of your care.

F. BREACH NOTIFICATION

In the event of a breach of unsecured PHI, we fully comply with the breach notification requirements of HIPAA and the HITECH Act. These requirements include notification of (i) the breach, (ii) the impact of such breach, and (iii) actions we have taken to minimize the impact such breach could have upon you.

G. EFFECTIVE DATE

This Notice of Privacy Practices is effective as of April 14, 2003, with revisions effective September 20, 2013.

Again, if you have any questions regarding this notice of our health information privacy policies, please contact Privacy Officer, 2000 Joseph E. Sanker Blvd, Cincinnati, Ohio 45212.
